ORAL JUDGMENT

1. Rule. Shri A.D.Oza, learned GP waives service of Rule on behalf of the respondents.

2. With the consent of the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the parties, the matter is taken up for final hearing today.

3. In this petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners has challenged the legality and validity of the order passed by the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation Rajkot Division-1, Rajkot dated 8.4.2003 passed under Section 32(A) of the Bombay Stamp Act by which the petitioner is directed to pay deficit stamp duty of Rs.31,118/- plus Rs.250/- by way of penalty in all Rs.31,368/- with regard to the document No.1552 executed and presented before the Sub-Registrar, Rajkot dated 27.2.2002 as well as communication dated 17.1.2006 by the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, City Division-1, Rajkot by which the petitioner is informed that the appeal / reference under Section-32(1) of the Bombay Stamp Act challenging the aforesaid order is filed after period of 90 days i.e. beyond the period of limitation, the said application cannot be accepted as there are no powers to condone the delay and that application is filed.

4. Shri R.C.Kakkad, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioners has vehemently submitted that the impugned order dated 8.4.2003 is contrary to the provisions of Rule-4 of the Bombay Stamp (Determination of Market Value of Property) Rules; 1984 and as such, no particulars and/or reasons are given by the authority for determining the valuation of the property in question at Rs.4,26,180/-. It is also contention on behalf of the petitioner that even no notice under Rule-4 of the Rules and / or even impugned order dated 8.4.2003 was not served upon the petitioner. It is also further submitted that as such the impugned order came to be passed on the basis of the notice under Rule-4 of Rules; 1984 by which the petitioner was called upon to prove that the valuation of the property/land in question is at Rs.2,03,880/-. He has relied upon the judgment of this Court in case of Budhabhai Merabhai Bharwad V. State of Gujarat reported in (2005) 8 GHJ Page-374 : 2005 (2) GLR 1792. The learned advocate for the petitioner has also placed reliance on another decision of the learned Single Judge of this Court rendered in case of PRADHYUMANBHAI MOHANLAL PATEL V. STATE OF GUJARAT & ORS. Reported in 2003 (1) GLR 454, wherein it is held that when the Chief Revenue and Controlling Authority passed an order in cyclostyled form wherein some gaps were filled up and few sentences were added, it is an order passed without proper application of mind and not speaking order and the same cannot be sustained in eye of law.

5. Shri A.D.Oza, learned AGP appearing on behalf of the respondents is not in a position to dispute that in the impugned order dated 8.4.2003 no particulars are given that on what basis the Deputy Collector has come to the conclusion that the valuation of the property in question is at Rs.4,26,180/-. The learned AGP is also not in a position to dispute that as such the controversy in question is directly covered by the judgment of this Court in case of Budhabhai Merabhai Bharwad and another decision PRADHYUMANBHAI MOHANLAL PATEL V. STATE OF GUJARAT & ORS.(supra). However, the learned AGP has submitted that the valuation of the property in question is fixed on the basis of the Jantri.

6. Heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the parties.

7. I have gone through the order passed by the Deputy Collector. In the impugned order, no particulars and/or basis have been mentioned by the Deputy Collector that on what basis, he has come to the conclusion that the valuation of the property in question is at Rs.4,26,180/-. Nothing is on record to suggest that the petitioner has been served with any material relied upon by the Deputy Collector, if any, for ascertaining and/or fixing the valuation of the property in question at Rs.4,26,180/-. It is not disputed by the learned Government Pleader that notice and the order were though served but the same had returned unserved due to change of address. It also prima-facie appears that even the impugned order has been passed on the basis of the notice issued under Rule-4 of the aforesaid Rules and by which the petitioner was called upon to prove that the valuation of the property is at Rs.2,03,880/- and no more. This Court has remanded the matter to the Deputy Collector for deciding the same afresh after issuing proper notice under Rule-4 of Rules 1984 and after giving an opportunity to the petitioner and after providing the material upon which the Deputy Collector wants to rely to determine the valuation of the property in question.

8. For the reasons stated above and for the reasons stated in the judgment of this Court in case of BHUDHABHAI MERABHAI BHARWAD and another decision PRADHYUMANBHAI MOHANLAL PATEL V. STATE OF GUJARAT & ORS.(supra), the petition is allowed partly. The impugned order passed by the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation Rajkot City Division-1, Rajkot dated 8.4.2003 as well as communication dated 17.1.2006 by the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, City Division-1, Rajkot by which the petitioner is informed that the appeal / reference under Section-32(1) of the Bombay Stamp Act challenging the aforesaid order is filed after period of 90 days i.e. beyond the period of limitation, the said application cannot be accepted as there are no powers to condone the delay and that application is filed, are hereby quashed and set aside and the matter is remanded to the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, Rajkot (City) Division-1, Rajkot for deciding the same afresh in accordance with law and on merits and after issuing proper notice under Rule-4 of the Rules of 1984 and after giving an opportunity to the petitioner and after supplying necessary material to the petitioner upon which the Deputy Collector proposes to rely while determining and/or ascertaining the valuation of the land in question. The said exercise to be done within a period of 6 months from today. It is, however, made clear that if any amount is already paid/deposited by the petitioner pursuant to the order passed by the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, Rajkot City Division-1, Rajkot dated 8.4.2003 then in that case, the respondents are not required to refund the said amount at this stage and the same be treated as deposit and it would be subject to the ultimate outcome of the proceedings on remand.

9. As agreed by the learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner that the petitioner will appear before the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, Valsad on 6.3.2006 and no further notice needs to be served upon the petitioner and this itself be treated as notice of hearing to the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner to appear before the Deputy Collector concerned on 6th March, 2006 at the first instance for making submissions and thereafter next date of hearing can be fixed by the respondents if so requires.

10. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent, however, there shall be no order as to costs.

Direct Service is permitted.
